SUSPECT IN LOMA SHOOTING IN CUSTODY
Wanted man Mark Young walked into the Sheriff's Office

Mesa County, Colorado—At 2:30 p.m. today, the wanted suspect from a shooting incident that took place in Loma last night walked into the Sheriff's Office to turn himself into authorities. After hearing from family members this afternoon that he was wanted by the Sheriff's Office, 45-year-old Mark Young of 1640 P Road, was arrested without incident.

He is currently being booked into the Mesa County Detention Facility on the warrant released earlier today. A booking photo is attached.

Previously Released at 9 a.m.–Deputies have issued a warrant for the arrest of Loma resident, 45-year-old Mark Edward Young of 1640 P Road, early this morning after a shooting incident that occurred at that address last night. Deputies were first called to the P Road house on a report of a vehicle with bullet holes in it. Based on the information provided about a high power rifle on the premises of the house, S.W.A.T. operations were called to the scene.

Deputies worked for nearly six hours trying to make contact with anyone in the home, believing Young remained in his home. Just before 4 a.m. today, deputies made entry into the house finding it empty.

The attached warrant was issued for Young in connection to the June 8th shooting incident. A photo of Young is not being released at this time pending his arrest. He is considered armed and dangerous. Anyone with information about Young's whereabouts is asked to contact 911 immediately.
