Movie Shines Light On Law Enforcement

Special Local Screening Will Raise Money for Charity

Grand Junction, Colo. – They are reflections from officers across our country who put themselves in harms way every day with no expectation of anything in return. Now Western Colorado residents will have the chance to see these incredible stories during a special screening of the new movie "Heroes Behind the Badge." This documentary film features some of the brave men and women of law enforcement who have put their lives on the line and survived, and those who made the ultimate sacrifice. Already this inspiring movie is changing the way people look at the men and women of law enforcement by highlighting the unselfish acts of bravery they commit each day in the line of duty.

To bring this movie to Western Colorado, local law enforcement agencies are teaming up with Colorado Mesa University's student Criminal Justice Association and the Western Colorado Community College POST Academy. Not only is this a chance to show the public the issues law enforcement deal with regularly, but it is also fundraiser for the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund.

The screening is open to the public and will be held on Saturday, January 26, 2013 at 7:00pm in the ballroom on the CMU main campus. Tickets prices are:

- $15 in advance (purchase at http://hbtbgrndjunccolo.eventbrite.com/with a credit card or with cash or check at the Mesa County Sheriff's Office, Grand Junction Police Department, or CMU)

- $5 in advance for CMU students (purchase at http://hbtbgrndjunccolo.eventbrite.com/ with a credit card or with cash or check at the Mesa County Sheriff's Office, Grand Junction Police Department, or CMU; must show a valid CMU ID at the door along with your ticket)

- $20 at the door (can be purchased with cash, check or credit card at the door)
